

I'm deeply dismayed by Sinclair Broadcastings' decision to air the anti-Kerry program, "Stolen Honor". This clearly does not serve the whole of the public, only one side. This is obviously motivated by partisan politics and not in the best interest of our nation. This reminds me of other countries and historical events tied in with "propaganda" If they are using public airways to promote their political aims, how can they continue to be licensed by the FCC? I'm all for freedom of speech, but in the public's interest, I think it only fair and just to show both sides of an issue. Please do something to regulate companies from using their name and power for political gain. Thank you.
